

MANUEL MONTEIRO

Mr. Manuel Monteiro is the new National Director for the Procurement Directorate. He was born on 09th March 1970 in Ossu-Viqueque and holds a University degree in Economic Management, which he completed in 2000. He has participated in various training sessions and workshops in the areas of Financial Management, Information Systems Management and general management.

From 1991 – 1999, Mr. Monteiro worked in Danamon Bank, Indonesia, in the areas of transfers, loan administration and accounting and from 2001 to early 2002 as Assistant Marketing Officer in the Tourism Office in Dili, bringing a wealth of private sector financial management experience to his role in the public sector.

In 2002, Mr. Monteiro joined the Ministry of Finance in the function of Senior Treasury Accountant and was promoted to Deputy Director of Treasury in 2005. In the absence of a regular director at this time, Mr. Monteiro was responsible for the National Treasury Directorate. Due to his hard work and achievements in Treasury, he was finally promoted to National Director of Treasury in 2007. Mr. Monteiro was instrumental for many reforms and improvements in Treasury such as reporting on expenditures and revenues against budget appropriations and computerizing the payroll system for the entire Government, just to name a few. He brings to his new role a thorough understanding of managing resources and developing, implementing and monitoring transparent processes.
