Background

The text that follows does not form part of the designation notice, but provides background to it.

Section 62.1 of Tax Law Number 8/2008, requires all persons who are required to pay income tax (including persons who have a loss for a tax year) to complete income tax forms and provides that the Tax Administration may require other persons to complete income tax forms.

For the 2009 income tax year the following persons are required to complete and lodge a 2009 annual income tax form:

- all persons who are required to pay income tax under the current law; and
- all persons conducting business activities are required to complete and lodge a 2009 income tax form;

Those businesses lodging Consolidated Monthly Taxes Forms and who have paid instalments of income tax for the 2009 year are advised that the instalments paid will be credited against the final income tax payable for the 2009 tax year. Any overpayment will be applied against any other tax due or will be refunded.
