
HEAD OF DEPARTMENT OF FISCAL DECENTRALISATION
MACROECONOMY

Name: Martinho Sequeira

Photo

Profile:

1) Place /date of birth:

Martinho Sequeira was born in Ossu, on 20 of March, 1975.

2) Education:

- Primary School (SD) No. 5 Aiturilaran, in Dili, 1982-1988;
- Junior High School (SMP) No. 3 Becora, in Dili, 1988-1991;
- Senior High School (SMA) Negeri Banguntapan, in Jogjakarta, 1991-1994;
- Institute of Government Science (STPDN), in Bandung, West Java Indonesia. 1995-1999.

3) Training:

- Long distance procurement training, organized by the World Bank in 2004-
- Dissemination training at INAP, Dili, on December 2004;
- Procurement comparative study, in Darwin-Australia, on August 2002;
- International conference on National Asset Liability Management, in Singapore, 5-6 November 2009;
- Committee on Macroeconomic Policy, Poverty Reduction and Inclusive Development, First session, Bangkok 24-26 November 2009;
- Comparative Study in BPS Indonesia, April 2010;

- DevINFO Training, Siem Reap-Cambodia, August 2010;
- Debt Management Sustainability in Sydney, November 2010.

4) Experience,

- Assistant Manager in NCBA, 2000 – Feb. 2002;
- Contract administrator, Procurement Directorate MoF (Level 4), 25 March 2002 – 2005;
- Head of Evaluation Team – Procurement Directorate –MoF, 2005 – 2007;
- Head of Department for Procurement Operation – Procurement Directorate – MoF, 2007 – 2008;
- Head of Department of Fiscal Decentralization – Macro-economy, DGAPAR – MoF, October 2009 – November 2010,
- Head of Microeconomic Department (Investment Policy Analysis) November 2010– up to now.

Related information - The head of department of Microeconomic (Investment Policy Analysis) of DGPAR has the following Tasks:

- 5) The Department of Investment Policy Analysis, henceforth called DIPA for short, is responsible for supporting the Director-General of the DGAR in analyzing the investment policies of Timor-Leste and in ensuring the use of cost-benefit analyses in the drafting of projects, giving special attention to landmark capital projects, assessing direct and indirect impacts of investments on employment, poverty and environment
- 6) In close articulation with the National Directorates and Departments of the Ministry of Finance, the DIPA is responsible for the following tasks:
 - Review and analysis recent investment policies in Timor-Leste;
 - Liaise with other Government institutions dealing with investment issues;
 - Evaluate capital projects and promote and ensure the use of cost-benefit analyses;
 - Assess direct and indirect impacts of investments on employment, poverty and environment;
 - Identify alternative capital projects in order to ensure that these activities are provided with the required infrastructure support;
 - In coordination with the NDM, evaluate investment portfolios from key ministries,
 - evaluate and analyze investment risks and consider individual landmark project risks;
 - Draft annual reports on the operations of the department;
 - Participate in the drafting of annual budgets;

- Develop short, medium and long term work plans;
- Perform other tasks attributed by law or delegated by the Director-General.